

Ecumes
Drawings
2009

Description

Foams is a series of drawings made with milk. These drawings are of organic nature. They are made of the interweaving of transparent bubbles : milky foams. Sometimes this matter coagulates in shiny small strips, which, become soaked with dust by drying in the air. Dusts and scorias settle there and "sow" the slimline of milk.

Technical sheet

2009
Milk and dust on paper
24 x 18 cm

Paris. 17 mai 2009